Being Certain – Part 2 – Truth Matters

1. Would you consider yourself to be someone who is more concerned with being precise, keeping rules and regulations or living a life free of restraints and restrictions? How does that find expression in your life?

2. The Bible makes some very clear distinctions about what is right and wrong. In our cultural climate, suggesting that someone's belief is wrong is considered to be in poor taste. When you present your faith as the exclusive and only way, you may be labeled as intolerant or arrogant. Have you experienced that kind of pressure or felt intimidated? What were the circumstances? How did you handle it? Did you keep quiet? Did you try to share your point of view? How did you feel?

3. Jesus makes very exclusive claims about his identity and salvation. Read John 14:6. What kind of push back might you receive?

4. We discovered that a proper understanding of Jesus is that he is the Messiah; he is God; and he is human. We stated that all truth has accompanying ramifications for how we live. What significance is there for you in these truth affirmations? What personal meaning does it hold for you?

5. How has the topic of having correct truth affected how you think about doctrine? Has your perspective changed at all? If so how?
