Worship—It’s what You were Made for – Part 1

1. What are your earliest conceptions of worship? Were they positive or negative? Christian or some other religion?

2. You were created to worship God. What significance does that have for your life? What kind of difference could this make in your life?

3. Read this definition of Christian worship. “Worship is the proper and total response of all moral beings to the Triune God as he reveals himself and in such a way that God would be honored, valued and treasured as being of supreme worth.” Break it down and discuss the significance of the various phrases.

4. Brainstorm and come up with as many terms that can reflect the response to worship. Here are a couple of words that may get you started: love, obey, cherish...

5. 1 Corinthians 10:31 says, “So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.” This makes even the most mundane activities of life an act of worship. How might eating, sports, working, shopping, camping, sex, education and other activities be acts of worship that give glory to God?

6. Close with having your group thank or praise God for...
